Notes on the application documents

- (1) Those who are applying based on No. 2 under Conditions of Eligibility (see page 6) must submit a "Graduation certificate (or certificate of expected graduation for those graduating by September 2025)," under application documents, in accordance with the requirements listed below.
 - Those who hold a bachelor's degree: Bachelor's degree certificate issued by the National Institution for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation
 - Those who will receive a bachelor's degree:
 - a) Those enrolled in a non-degree course at a junior college or at a technical college accredited by the National Institution for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation: A certificate of expected graduation issued by the school, declaring that the applicant is due to graduate and a degree application certificate signed by the head of the school.
 - b) Those other than the above: A "degree application certificate" issued by the National Institution for Academic Degrees and University Evaluation.
- (2) Unless otherwise specified by the MSDA Office, all documents and certificates submitted must be written in either English or Japanese.
- (3) If the name printed on the certificate is different from the applicant's present name, please attach a document for official proof of name change (family register copy, etc.). The submitted document will only be used to confirm that the applicant is the same person. Once admitted, students are allowed to use "maiden/former names" or "nicknames" by filing out the application. Please refer to the Enrollment Guidebook which will be sent to successful applicants.
- (4) Rikkyo University may request the additional document to confirm your name on the submitted documents.
- (5) Application documents received by Rikkyo University will not be returned for any reason.
- (6) There is no need to submit a copy of the health examination report, as all incoming students will take the health examination at the time of enrollment.

7 Examination Admission Ticket

An examination admission ticket will be issued to all applicants whose applications have been officially received and processed, and all documents have been verified. This ticket shows your Examinee Number and is used to identify applicants and announce the screening result.

Upon issuance of the examination admission ticket on the Online Application System, the applicants will be informed by email. The Examination Admission Ticket can be downloaded directly from the Online Application System. Please print it out and keep it carefully.

Entrance Examination

The entrance examination consists of two parts: the document screening (review of submitted application documents) and the oral examination.

For those applicants who have successfully passed the document screening, their Examinee Numbers will be posted on May 9, 2025, on the MSDA website below.

https://msda.rikkyo.ac.jp/admissions_n_visa.html

Applicants who have successfully passed the document screening will be invited for the oral examination. It is scheduled as follows:

Oral Examination Date

Saturday, May 17 – Wednesday, May 28, 2025
--

- (1) Applicants residing outside Japan may take this examination online at the time and by the method designated by the University.
- (2) Applicants residing within Japan will be notified regarding the interview method (in person or via video conference) as a part of the interview invitation announcement.
- (3) All applicants must take the examination at the time and by the method designated by the University. Requests for schedule changes will not be accepted.

Note 1: No additional materials are necessary when you attend the oral examination.

Note 2: If the applicant is physically disabled, ill or suffering from injuries and requires special consideration for the examination, please contact the MSDA Office in advance, and submit an "Application for Special Examination Arrangements".

Announcement of Final Results

The final result will be announced at 11:00 am on Friday, June 6, 2025.

The Examinee Numbers of successful applicants will be posted on the MSDA website as below.

https://msda.rikkyo.ac.jp/admissions_n_visa.html

An Acceptance Letter will be sent to all successful applicants on the announcement day, via special registered express mail for those in Japan and via courier for those residing overseas.

10 Enrollment Procedures

The Enrollment Procedures consist of the following two steps.

Step 1: Payment of academic fees and others

Rikkyo University must be able to confirm the payment on or before Friday, July 4, 2025.

Step 2: Enrollment documents

Enrollment documents must be submitted to Rikkyo University by Friday, July 4, 2025.

Details will be announced to all successful applicants by mail or email. Please note that the enrollment documents that are submitted will not be returned for any reason.

Academic fees and other payments for the first year

Academic fees	Tuition (at the time of enrollment)	JPY 1,800,000 (JPY 900,000)
Other payments	Student mutual-aid health insurance union fee (at the time of enrollment)	JPY 3,500 (JPY 1,750)
Total amount to be remitted by July 4, 2025 for the first semester		JPY 901,750
Total amount to be remitted in the spring semester of 2026 *The tuition fee for the second semester will be charged in May 2026		JPY 901,750

The academic fees and other payments shall be paid in two equal installments: the first installment as specified above and the second installment in the spring semester of 2026. Applicants should be ready to make a payment arrangement well before the deadline so that the payment of the first installment can be confirmed on the university's side by July 4, 2025, at the latest.

Notes for academic fees and other payments

- (1) Details for academic fees and other payments will be announced in the "Enrollment Guidebook", which will be sent to all successful applicants.
- (2) Tuition includes a semester enrollment fee of 60,000 JPY per semester, for a total of 120,000 JPY per year.

Incoming student health examinations

Japanese laws require all new students to undergo a health examination. The examination schedule will be sent to applicants who complete the enrollment procedures. The examination is free of charge. Should any serious illness be identified by the health examination, and should any serious illness be determined to constitute a hindrance to a study, the student may be placed on leave of absence.

11 | Withdrawal Procedures

Those who need to withdraw after completing the enrollment procedures to Rikkyo University may file for either Case A or Case B withdrawal as shown below.

The procedures for a refund for both cases are explained below. More detailed procedures are included in the "Enrollment Guidebook" that will be sent to all successful applicants. Those who intend to withdraw and apply for a refund should refer to the guidebook.

If you need to apply for a withdrawal, please contact the Admissions Office (e-mail: admissions@rikkyo.ac.jp) for assistance as soon as possible.

Case A:

The applicant wishes to withdraw after completing the enrollment procedure due to circumstances beyond their control. By filing for a withdrawal according to the procedures shown below he/she will receive a refund of "remitted academic fees and other payments." (The refund will be made toward the end of October via bank transfer).

Deadline for refund application: September 19, 2025

Required documents:

- Form for withdrawal from enrollment (a form designated by Rikkyo University; to obtain the form, please contact the Admissions Office, admissions@rikkyo.ac.jp)

Case B:

After completing the enrollment procedures, the anticipated graduation or completion is revoked, rendering the applicant ineligible for admission. By filing for a withdrawal according to the procedures shown below, the applicant will receive a refund of "remitted academic fees and other payments." (The refund will be made by early November via bank transfer.)

Deadline for refund application: September 30, 2025

Required documents:

- Form for withdrawal from enrollment (a form designated by Rikkyo University; to obtain the form, please contact the Admissions Office, admissions@rikkyo.ac.jp)
- Certificate confirming that the applicant's graduation is no longer possible.
